

Wales 1st Annual Bass Fishing Contest was a success with 22 contestants fishing from 10 boats. The chief of police, Dawn, and officer Stanley were extremely helpful in assisting the captains get their boats in the water and out. And again thanks to the folks at Sichel's Beach for assisting, seeing us off and making this a Great event! Although the weather caused an early weigh in at 1:15 it didn't dampen the results!

Special note:

The group did vote to change the 3 Bass limit per person to a 5 Bass limit per boat.

The contest started at 8am sharp with the following contestants.
